

Criteria for approving ISO 9000 and ISO 14000 Certification Bodies for reimbursement of certification expenses to SSI units

1. Certification Bodies accredited by NABCB, India would be directly approved
The CB should submit a copy of the annual surveillance audit report of the AB. In case certificates other than NABCB accredited certificates are issued by the CB then the CB shall comply to criteria 2,3, or 4. as applicable.
2. Indian CBs accredited directly by foreign Certification Bodies and operating only from Indian location should
 - a) Hold an accreditation from any IAF MLA member for the Indian location
 - b) Should submit a copy of the annual surveillance audit report of the AB
- 3.&4. The foreign certification body that operates through a branch office, and franchisee under legal agreement and the franchisee does not hold accreditation from any IAF MLA member in its own name, then the following evidence should be provided
 - a) It is legal entity in India
 - b) A formal contract with the parent body including the applicability of Indian laws under the jurisdiction of Indian Courts on the parent body towards any liability arising out of certification process of the Indian organization
 - c) Should submit a copy of the annual surveillance audit report of the AB conducted at the Indian location. Alternatively, if the AB has no plans to conduct annual surveillance audit at the Indian location, the branch / franchisee should get an office and witness audit done by NABCB assessors on cost basis.
5. Individuals / organizations acting as a representative of a foreign CB under a legal agreement and not using the name of the CB should not be considered for subsidy as there is no evidence of the foreign CB being committed to their certification business in India.

- Notes:
- i) Over a period of 18-24 months, CBs listed at serial no. 2, 3 & 4 should get themselves accredited by NABCB.
 - ii) Quality Council of India and NABCB are authorized by the SSI department to receive and scrutinize the annual surveillance audit reports/ documents submitted by the CBs.
